The Cherry Tree.

Little Jack Brown was found up a tree. It was a cherry tree, and it was standing on real estate belonging to a citizen who would like to see all the trees in the world have all the cherries they could, providing they bought 'em at a shilling per quart.

"Up a tree, eh?" began his Honor—"up a tree and hocking cherries! Oh! boy, this is a bad case for you!"

" Didn't eat but three cherries," howled the barefooted Jack, trying to pick up a peanut from the floor between his toes.

" Only three—yam, only three cherries—yam. Don't you know, young man, that to eat three cherries is to be a boy?"

" I didn't 'todd' any grave," sobbed Jack.

" Up a tree, filling your hide with cherries, eh? Ah—am—but I don't know what to do with you!"

" Don't do nothing this time," replied the boy. " If you're a seller go this time, I'll never hook another cherry."

" Sour, were you? There is some excuse for a boy's stealing sweet cherries, but a boy who should be a seller!"

" They was party sweet," interrupted Jack.

" Little Jack Brown" said the court after a pause. " Those cherries are of no value. It is the example we look at. A boy who steals cherries will not steal money. What will you punishment? Let you go this time?"

" I've got a man, you know," replied Jack, " and I'll stay at home, you know and play with Alexander the Great and never go by another cherry tree in my life."

" His second appearance he wiped his nose and said, and perhaps another continental will see him a real good boy."—Detroit Free Press.

A young lady viewing Dom Pedro in St. Louis the other day, remarked as she fixed her eyes on the carriage. " It isn't exactly immortal to be an emperor, of course but it's a glimmer, at least of King Dom come."

WHO FATTEN AND HOW.

The defeat of Hyman, the negro congressman at Goldsboro Wednesday was decreed and ordered by Settle and Smith and their ring, not that running a negro would imperil their election as they gave out, but that they wanted the place for a favorite of their own race, and the consideration was purely pecuniary and selfish.

Five thousand dollars a year, they thought, was too much for a negro, who eight times sold as slave brought not altogether that sum.

Let us look at Settle and Smith and their little ring, and find if we can, how much each of them has made out of the negro vote in the past eight years.

Thomas Settle; seven years a Supreme Court Judge, $17,000; and one year to Person, including outfit, $15,000; total $32,000.

William A. Smith; eight years president North Carolina Railroad, $25,000, two years in Congress, 10,000; receiver Western North Carolina Railroad, $15,000; total $50,000.

Isaac J. Young, Collector of Internal Revenue for eight years say $200,000. Informers' fees, compromising, royalties, perquisites and picking have probably aggregated $300,000 more but the fellow has been hoard, and a half million in a year is only sixty odd thousand dollars a month.

Logan Harris, man of all work, put him down at eight thousand in eight years, say $44,000.

C. L. Harris, four years superintendent of public works, $10,000. He was in the real estate line on Deep River in Chatham at one time, and again in the revenue business; now a government architect; say all told $25,000.

Thomas B. Knobell, register in bankruptcy eight years; quantity really unknown and uncertain, but to be within bounds, say $30,000.

Governor Holden: two years and a half governor, $12,000; postmaster four years $14,000; total $26,000.

Governor Bragdon; forty years in office, say $100,000.

Richard C. Badger; adviser to the Governor, legislator and district attorney, say in all, $25,000.

Timothy F. Lee; sheriff six years, say $90,000. But Tim had $90,000 when he came, all of which he says he spent for a party, and so he only got even. But has anybody ever got even with him?

Hon. J. W. Alberton: two years judge, say, with special courts $6,000. Now candidate for secretary of state.

Col. T. L. Hargrove; legislator two years; per diem and mileage $1,000; attorney general four years, $31,000; total $15,000. Candidate for re-election.

Dr. Wm. H. Wheeler: four years in the legislature and convention; per diem and mileage, say $2,000. Candidate for treasurer.

Hon. John Reilly; sheriff of Cumberland four years, $10,000. Auditor four years, $7,000; total $17,100. Candidate for re-election.

A. W. Tourot, judge six years; with special courts say $18,000; code commissioner four years $10,000, and pension agent six months $2,000. Total $30,000.

We shall stop here for the present to sum up. The above presents a grand total of $1,073,386.00. Nearly ~~50~~ ELEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS!

realized by the Settle and Smith ring from negro votes in the past eight years; and yet the whole power of that ring is brought to bear, on John Hyman, a poor negro, just emerged from slavery.

We are glad John is beaten by the men who have made a tool of him for the term he has been in congress, as well as for all of the past eight years.

We salute the negroes under the whip-lash of their task-masters and ring-masters.

Let them go vote for Smith and his $50,000; and for Young, with his half million. Much the negro has got, and will get from any of those men.

Young will get from any of those men.

"We're," said the lawyers in chorus.

A tall gaunt figure rose up solemnly in the jury box and said impressively, "But I'm not."

"What is your objection, Mr. Snooks?" inquired his honor, sharply.

"This young man on my right, your honor, has been eating onions."

"Objection overruled; go on with the case," observed Judge Neuman, with significant glances at the sheriff, and the tallest man sat down resignedly, and held a white handkerchief to his nose as a kind of signal of distress.—Elmira Gazette.

General Babcock's best friend advised him to go West, and take a dose of that popular Black Hills medicine known as Siouxthing Syrup.

HAMBURG—WHAT GOV. WALKER THINKS ABOUT IT.

[From his speech made in New York, Tuesday night.]

Fellow-citizens, the other day there occurred down in this poor state of South Carolina and our patriots hardly mentioned the name of South Carolina without dropping a tear—the other day there occurred an affair within the limits of South Carolina that every reasonable and honest man must deplore. It never could have occurred even in the state of Texas, it could occur nowhere except where the negroes and their white allies had rule. Fellow-citizens, the truth as to that affair is not yet known, but I stand here to night to make a small prediction and it is this. That when the facts of that matter are known, when daylight is let in to illuminate the darkness that covers this transaction, it will be found that it was nothing in the world but a radical conspiracy, a re-inauguration of the outrage null. I don't stand here in the slightest degree to palliate it. Had I been Governor of South Carolina and I had not of course some excuse than the ordinary man—somebody would have felt hump in a mighty short time. [Applause.] But, gentlemen, what I desire to impress upon you all is that these outrages would never have occurred in a state controlled by us. They seek States controlled by themselves in order that they may have the countenance directly or indirectly of the officials themselves, and I tell you that probably that is not the last one you will hear of. They will inaugurate others. They want to carry this campaign upon the boughs of the bloody shirt. They are unwilling to have the people's best judgment upon the party as it is now; they are willing to have it held up to the public scorn in its nakedness. But what matters it to them. What matters it to them if a dozen or half dozen negroes lose their lives, provided always the Republicans triumph. What matters it to them though riot does occur, provided if by means of that wrong and outrage they may achieve success. Now, fellow-citizens, whenever you hear of wrongs in the South, watch carefully, look closely, sift the evidence. The first reports will be from radical sources, and likely the radical reports will be made up of down right falsehoods. Watch until you get at the bottom facts, sift out the truth and you will ascertain that all such outrages are contrived for the purpose of making political capital for the Republicans at the North.

Col. T. L. Hargrove; legislator two years; per diem and mileage $1,000; attorney general four years, $31,000; total $15,000. Candidate for re-election.

Dr. Wm. H. Wheeler: four years in the legislature and convention; per diem and mileage, say $2,000. Candidate for treasurer.

Hon. John Reilly; sheriff of Cumberland four years, $10,000. Auditor four years, $7,000; total $17,100. Candidate for re-election.

THE HISTORY WE ARE MAKING.

Within the memory of a man who has not yet reached middle age, many grand historic events have occurred, seeming like mere episodes, accompanying the peaceful progress of the world, and upon them the eyes of posterity will be fixed, forgetful of what has appeared to this generation, its serious work. Within six years of the revolutionary era of 1848 we have the Crimean war; the mutiny in India; the Austro-French war, which laid the broad foundation of the kingdom of Italy and prepared the way for the new German Empire; the Franco-Prussian war which destroyed the empire of Napoleon, laid the capstone on the column of Italian unity; and further advanced the great edifice of German nationality; the revolution in Spain; the English wars in Africa; the Chinese rebellion; the opening up of Japan, so long shut up; as it were, within a brassed wall; the abolition of slavery in America; the abolition of serfdom in Russia; the confederation of Canada;—these are some of the political events that will at once occur to the mind of the reader in making the last twenty years a remarkable era.

But, gentlemen, what I desire to impress upon you all is that these outrages would never have occurred in a state controlled by us. Hillsborough Recorder.

WEDNESDAY.....AUGUST 9, 1876.

FOR PRESIDENT:

Samuel J. Tilden,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
Thomas A. Hendricks,
OF INDIANA.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

We believe as far as the Democrats of this District are concerned, there is little need of urging the adoption of the Constitutional Amendments. The party is a unit so far as we know. And we might say that the Republicans are not so bitterly opposed, as a whole, as Mr. Ike Strayhorn, the elector for this District professes himself to be. Even Mr. Strayhorn is gracious enough to admit the excellence of most of them, and only regrets, because they are presented to him, as he expresses it at me once.

Are the Republicans consistent in the assertion that as a party they are opposed to, and have opposed the Amendments? We are aware that their protest binds them as a party to opposition. Doubtless many of their thoughts, antecedents are not borne out by facts.

The Raleigh News has gone into a careful analysis of the vote on all the Amendments, and it appears that with all the parliamentary巧ery to maintain consistency of initial opposition, the Republican Delegates in the Convention have their full share of responsibility for the passage of the amendments.

The News shows that sixteen of the thirty amendments passed unanimously; that the Republicans voted solidly against only four of the Amendments; the 9th, 17th, 21st and 25th, and that they voted for ten of the amendments besides. With all their assumed hostility to Constitutional reform, their votes conceded its necessity.

We long ago showed the necessity for the most deep seated reform was imperative. And the people of our District went with us for a complete renovation. It would have been well to have re-adopted the Constitution of 1835 with the qualifications the results of the war had made inevitable. And the close vote in the Convention made other important changes impossible. Still, the Amendments presented give vast relief, and we feel sure that they will be adopted.

We do not care at present to discuss the different Amendments. There is time enough for that. Ike Strayhorn did us the honor to say that the Recorder was the first paper in the State to suggest a Convention. We yield to the Wilmington Journal, but we did enough in the advocacy of the measures to fix our faith in it, and we can well afford to wait what we conceive the opportune time to press the adoption of the amendments.

LET THE PEOPLE REFLECT

That the prices of farm products are low and do not pay the expenses of cultivation.

That the prices of labor are so low that they do not enable the laborer, even at the low prices of necessities, to supply himself.

That the mechanic, if he finds work to do, is denied the reward to which skilled labor entitles him.

And all because a vicious system of finance has driven money to a common center, as blood is driven to the human heart by unhealthy action, and the extremities are deprived of due nourishment.

And all because a party which affects to regard the interests of the people, has been intent only upon feeding that centre, making a few rich, and leaving the great mass of the people to starve and to perish.

The Republican party, controlling the country for sixteen years, profuse in its luxuries, extravagant in its expenditures, reckless in its estimates, has looked only to the welfare of the favored partisan, and left the masses to ruin.

Let the people reflect and let them act. The remedy is in their hands.

Tilden and Hendricks, and the platform of the Democratic party will bring them through their trouble.

During the discussion at Hendersonville, between Governor Vance and Judge Settle, on the 27th July, Major Rhett, of South Carolina, asked Governor Vance if he could tell how much money the Revenue officers had taken from poor farmers who distilled a little whisky from their twenty-five or thirty bushels of corn. Governor Vance replied that there were only two who knew, and they were the Almighty, who had nothing to do with the Radical party, and the devil, who had so much interest in the Radical party that he would not tell.

This we get from the Raleigh News.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The State, as well as the National Campaign, as begun by the Republicans, seems to set itself against that current in which popular needs and sympathies inevitably runs. There is a crying want all over the land for relief from crushing business troubles. That relief can only come through governmental reform. That relief is demanded, somewhat imploringly, somewhat indignantly, and how is the demand met? Not by a confession of the people's wants, not by a prostration of national humiliation, but by something with which the present has nothing to do, which the past would wisely forget—by appeals to sentiments and passions that wise statesmanship and true patriotism would have been careful to stifle.

Thus in the State Campaign, Vance is met by Settle, not with practical issues, but with the bloodstained records of the past; not with arguments bearing upon a future which may be brightened by wise reforms, but by recollections of a gloomy by-gone period which all might wisely forget, because in those days men acted under the spur of a necessity and under the influence of laws and motives unknown to days of peace. The truth is that the past is no criterion for the future, except that as it may guide it by the lesson of experience. There is now no parallel between the years of the war when the gentle rule of the civil law was suspended, and the days of peace, when constitutional rule is presumed to prevail. It is of this we complain, that when civil law asserts its claims, we hear nothing from the Republican party but what reminds us of the dread past; and that while the Democratic party, conscious of the woe and the ruin, is full of schemes for repair and recuperation, it is not by the other side with the flaunting banner of party which is ever to find that office holders may flourish.

And this is the conflict. It is between the people, crushed, poor, desponding, and the office holders, rich, prosperous and arrogant.

In North Carolina, the candidates on the Republican side are all office holders. Is it not this?

COURAGE.

Democrats of North Carolina, it is for you to retrieve the fallen fortunes of your noble old commonwealth. To drive those innumerable birds of prey that surround our State treasury, by casting your votes for your candidates now headed by the gifted Vance; and when you have discharged this duty, your State will assume her position as the pioneer State and mother of honored sons.

Watch and wait Til-don we'll ad-Vance on them.

FIGHT THE WAR OVER AGAIN!

That seems to be the programme of the Radical party. If that's your game, we of the South have learned a lesson; if we fight that war over, we don't expect to secede this time; but we are going to fight it in the Union. We are going to have the Democracy of the North, East and West with us; and we expect to whip you so bad that you will never make a fight on that issue again. Our banner is waving, inscribed Reform and death to corruption. There is no Slavery issue in this fight; though they may try so hard to put it in. The South has set herself right before the North and we have become again a united brotherhood, neither do we mean to be separated. The Southerns and the Northerns, the Westerns and the Easterns all bear the same battle cry. "REFORM and death to CORRUPTION!" From the Danville Express.

Ike Young, the Revenue candidate for Congress in the Raleigh district, is reported as saying in connection with the defeat of Hayman before the nominating Convention that $5,000 (the salary of a Congressman) was too much for a kinky head nigger to handle. And yet the "kinky heads" as Ike Young calls them, have no more pride and independence than to vote for him right upon the heels of such an utterance. We take this from the Charlotte Observer.

The Belknap trial is over and the accused is acquitted. Not a two-thirds vote was obtained, and there was a curious mixture of Democrats and Republicans in the result. Let the Democrats have the credit in the punishment of crime, and let the Republicans who voted for the articles have the same credit. Three fourths were necessary to a conviction, and both parties were opposed to such a result. It was not a party question.

The New York Tribune thinks that the Republicans have a severe fight before them and that their only hope is to cut adrift from Grant. But how can a thing cut adrift from itself? Republicanism is Grantism.

Ex-Gov. Seymour is to take the stump of Tilden in Indiana.

THE TWO FLAGS.

The Albany New York Argus says: The Democratic party is marching under the starry banner of a recognized Republic, fraternal and free.

The Republican party marches under the banner of the bloody shirt.

There is no question as to which flag is preferred by the people of this restored Republic. They have had enough of gore, of misrepresentation, of angry and tumultuous conflict. They demand peace and order, prosperity and law.

The bloody shirt is the ensign of the brigand. The desperadoes who carry it have robbed the South of many millions of dollars, and the Republic of millions more. And by their plots and conspiracies, they have set the rabble of the South quarreling with each other; and then used the consequences of their own villainies to fire the northern heart into perpetuating their power to plunder the people.

Governor Tilden will preserve law abiding liberty, will maintain orderly progress, with Jacksonian firmness. At the same time he will clean out the pestiferous brood of public plunderers who have stolen the people poor.

Hold high aloft the Flag of the Free; push forward the standard of the avenger of thieves!

Long ago we called attention to the degradation of white men by force of radical machinery. White men and women were subjected to the vassalage of negroes. That state of things still exists, and negroes are the purveyors of poor whites. Look at the records of Jones county. Will the white people of North Carolina stand this?

We give the negroes of the State their rights, of property, of suffrage, of legal protection, farther than this, we cannot go.

A Radical paper asks: Who would Til-don call around him as advisors in case he should be elected? It is enough to know that no thief need apply.

A GENUINE NEGRO LOVER! HAR-GROVE!

A correspondent of Wilmington Journal writes from Oxford that Col. Hargrove the Radical candidate for Attorney General, said in his recent speech at that place:

"I have been a Republican for seven years and I would vote for the kinky-headed negro in the State before I would for any Democrat in it."

This is the same Hargrove that in a public speech, as the Sentinel states, thanked "God because the Lowry gang made twenty-one white men bite the dust."

This is the same Hargrove that so grossly insulted the venerable Dr. Wm. Glavin and the other ministers and members of the Methodist and other Christian churches in North Carolina.

And yet this man appeals to white men, to Christian men to vote for him for Attorney General. And he appeals too to white men to Christian men in Robeson county the friends and relatives of the murdered victims of the Lowry gang of assassins, to come forward and support him for one of the highest offices in the gift of the people.

The Pittsburgh Volksblatt says: "So far, we have yet to hear of the first German whom Carl Schurz has turned around and carried with him in this campaign."

The Hon. Dan Voorhees, it is announced, notwithstanding his alleged squirming, will do battle for the whole Democratic ticket in Indiana during the coming campaign.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says that while it supports Hayes and Wheeler, it is very much afraid Tilden and Hendricks are going to be elected.

Since Mr. Schurz has come out for Hayes it is not likely his legs will be seen in Hopper's Weekly any more. In fact, that paper is in too hot pursuit of "Uncle Sammy" to make a 'cut' at anybody else.

It is very unhealthy for a man to grow up without recollections of an old farm, with buckthorn bushes and swallows in a barn, and a pig nestling in the mud—and that's what's matter with Hayes. He never was a granger.

It is reported that Mr. Munn, of Chicago, asked Mr. Blaine to use his influence with Gen. Grant for some purpose or other. Mr. Blaine, according to the story, replied in these terms: "I have no influence with the present Administration. No man has who is not a thief by instinct."

Gov. Gustave Koerner has made his estimate of the relative division of the German vote for the State of Illinois. He says according to his observation he is convinced that at the very least three-fourths of the German voters of Illinois, outside of Cook county, will vote for Tilden.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "There is no opposition to Governor Tilden inside the Democratic ranks in Ohio. A few of the brilliant gentlemen who have been in the background, voting the Republican ticket for the past three years, are sticking to their whips a little."

The campaign already grows warm in Ohio. Judge Stelle, Gen. Brickerhoff, and Fred Hassauer, the great "Liberal" leaders who supported Hayes for Governor last fall, are plunging into the thick of the fight in behalf of Tilden and Hendricks, and this means a hotly-contested and aggressive canvass on the part of the Democracy.

Ex-Gov. Seymour is to take the stump of Tilden in Indiana.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON D. C., August 4th.

The only thing that has, for some time past, broken the dull routine of Congressional proceedings was an exciting scene in the House yesterday. The Committee on the Judiciary had unanimously signed a report exonerating Mr. Knott from all blame in withholding the Caldwell dispatch in the Blaine investigation. Mr. Ward presented this report when Mr. Knott said that when he understood that the report of the Committee in this case was to be unanimous he had not intended to say a word, but he had changed his mind within a few days, since seeing an Editorial in the "Philadelphia North American" in which that paper in attending to Josiah Caldwell, letter to Mrs. Gen'l. Sherman, said "that the letter showed that Mr. Knott had famously withheld the Caldwell dispatch, that by this course Knott and his friends had prevented Mr. Blaine from obtaining the Presidential nomination, but it had covered Knott himself all over with infamy." Mr. Knott said under the circumstances he deemed it his duty to make a plain statement of facts. Thus Mr. Knott did and in so doing as was to have been expected call down the wrath of the Blaines on a perfect torrent. Moses Frye and those took the lead, and for sooth say, and personal abuse in a thin garb of parliamentary language evinced a high degree of profanity. All the Republicans members withdrew their names from the report and it was recommitted to the Committee. Mr. Knott replied maintaining the stand he had taken and reiterating his charges. The Republican campaign managers have come to the conclusion that the only way in which they can succeed this fall is by reviving the sectional hatreds and animosities of sixteen years ago. We might as well make up our minds to meet and if possible contradict it. That we shall have a bloody shirt invasion, I think, is unquestionable. The boy's blue will be castled all over the North. The Whisky tins, the Indian ring leaders and the corruptor of all the corruptions who have been fattening upon the people for so many years are liberally subscribing money to buy uniforms, torches and transparency, and send them marching across the country, all for the purpose of reviving the war spirit. Every possible device will be used for this end. Only last Saturday the New York Graphic, a journal that is closer to the riggs that cluster around the administration than most persons suspect, printed a double page picture of the battle of South Mountain in which occurred nearly half a generation ago. There can be no doubt that Mr. Zack Chandler drew his check on the campaign fund to pay for this interesting contribution to Republican campaign literature. Harper's Weekly will of course follow the leadership of the Graphic in this particular time. The Song of the "Gangs" Everywhere now is the Ex-Confederate House. If we can believe them the investigations have only been stated to dredge and disgrace the men who "perilled their lives to save the country." That we are told, is the meaning of the "persecution" of Belknap and Babcock and the long list of others whose scalps have been exposed and who have been dragged to justice. If these were the only tactics that the desperate men in power intended to use it would be easy to meet them, but they are not. Hand in hand with them as soon as even the campaign becomes some what warmer will come rumors of outrages and assassination in the South for opinion sake. The carpet-baggers do not intend to surrender very easily. They know and the Chandlers and Mortons know that the more negroes who are murdered in the South between this and next November the more the Democratic party at the North will be damaged. And they will see that if not done in reality the Northern Democrats shall believe that they are.

County Commissioners in session this week.

Mr. Curtis and family from Chester, South Carolina, are guests of James Parks of the Orange House.

The ground is wet and the streams are high—a sign that the drought is passed.

Water-melons in the shops give some sign that summer has some fruits.

The Durham papers are full of local notices of a certain kind. Our shop keepers do not give us occasion for them.

The Episcopal Church has been repainted. The less said, the better.

Joe Caldwell of the Observer goes on the Raleigh News this week. No one in the State equals Joe as a "local," and he will be a tower of strength to the News, as he has been to the Observer.

Cows lots about town hang their ears somewhat tamely. They are proud, but show humility by pendulous auriculars.

Mr. F. C. Geer, one of our old Durham friends, paid us a visit last Wednesday.

Town Commissioners to the rescue of the streets. They try aloud—at least, they do not bellow.

We commend the Orange House to all who would partake of a good meal. Specially, will we commend it to those who have come from great distances. Address James Parks.

Peter McQuinn is still making those big cheeses for which he obtained premiums at the State Fair. Those cheeses are good, and since what Orange County is capable of doing, if our people would only wake up to their interests, buy less and sell more, ought to be our motto.

An Unpleasant Familiarity.

Mr. W. A. Hayes, druggist, while feeding his drug machine, brought his fingers in unpleasant contact and had two of them severely lacerated. But he does not carry his arm in a sling, as he might do, because he might, by doing so, alarm others against going into the profitable occupation of the druggist.

Steve Men.

For some weeks past, Orange County has been thoroughly traversed by stove wagons under Tennessee proprietorship. Every house should have a stove under the control of the good housewife, for good cooks are among the things that were. Be independent and make your own biscuits.

Good Temperance Convention.

This body convened in Raleigh in the Common Hall yesterday, (Tuesday). About three hundred delegates are expected to be present, besides visitors from all sections of the State.

N. B.—Broughton G. W. C. T. of the State has made ample provision for all.

M. M. Martin's Co.

We call attention to the advertisement of this old Richmond firm. It has fixed itself in the affections and interests of our people. Whatever they advertise is certainly good and gladly herald them among the new in the new, but steady, progressive people who are making in the direction of improvement. Thus saved is money made, and thus is surely saved by good labor saving machines. Truly upon H. M. Smith & Co.

Brooklyn has the most intellectual girls, New York the most stylish, Brooklyn the prettiest, Baltimore the most refined, Chicago the smartest and St. Louis the most progressive. Unlike as they are in characteristics, the "Domestic Paper Fashions" are the natural preference of them all.

Those who are troubles with Torpold Liver Comptroller of the Bowles, Pitts, Indication or any disorder of the stomach, should take Dr. Wade's Liver Corrector.

The Campaign Last Week.

We only speak from hearsay. Orange was invaded by the presence at Chapel Hill of Mr. Manning and Mr. Moring of Chatham, at Durham, Mr. Moring was present, and Mr. Lyon and Mr. S. H. Webb presented themselves, not as candidates, but as advocates.

Both of these gentlemen have some special claims to assert. They bore themselves well, and White Cross, F. N. Strudwick engaged in the conflict, and gave Mr. Turner many well directed blows. The week was, politically considered, a pleasant one. The Democrats have certainly lost nothing.

Mr. Eddie Burgy.

The School of the Misses Nash and Miss Kollack opened on Friday. We learn that the prospects are good. We mention with pleasure, the return of the gentleman whose name heads this paragraph. He was acknowledged to be one of the best teachers this or any other School has ever had. But we mention his return with singular object, which is to call attention to the signal compliment he has paid Hillsboro by accepting the call for the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. De La Croix. Mr. Burgy for the past year has been most pleasantly employed at a seat in a gentleman's family on the Hudson River. His duties were light, and his compensation was larger than he could receive here. Yet so strong were the attractions of Hillsboro, that no sooner did he hear of the vacancy in the School here, than he was an applicant.

Mr. B. is a gentleman in the broadest sense of the term, and an accomplished musician, and we are glad to welcome him back again.

Montgomery and Morris.

The school of these gentlemen, the Hillsboro Military Academy, opened the past week. We do not know with what prospects. But we can say with all sincerity that no good Schools exist in the State. Both of the gentlemen in charge have had the best of scholastic training and experience. Maj. Hamilton graduated at the South Carolina Military Academy, was associated with Col. Tew, a man not apt to make injudicious selections—in the first Hillsboro Military Academy, was Major in the sixth North Carolina regiment from which he only retired from the effect of wounds, and has since the war devoted himself almost exclusively to teaching. Mr. Morris is a graduate of the University of Virginia and would lose 900 Republican votes in Halifax. Johnson is all O. K. for Vance and Jarvis.

The negroes from Warren, Lenoir, Orange, Halifax and other counties are very much dissatisfied about the way the nomination of Brogden was manipulated. They charge openly that money has been used, and several of the white Republicans were decently cased out by these elating darkies. There is also much dissatisfaction in Halifax county at the nomination of O'Hara for Elector. A leading white Republican of that county said here publicly that O'Hara stood charged with defrauding Halifax county and would lose 900 Republican votes in Halifax. So goes the Messenger.

The School is in good hands and we hope to be able to record its prosperity.

The "ash hopper" as one of our friends calls it, stands guard over the open Court yard. That belfry, the monument of county liberality, looks down upon pruned fences and undisturbed pigs.

But is this Court yard a proper representation of Orange County? Do not our people feel able to pay for a little outside respectability? Do let us have a fence, even if the Commissioners have to plant the north this fall to provide the timber. A hope, even in the distant future, is better than none.

Every body is alive for VANCE all over the State. Keep him alive. He is the live man.

The town pump has been repaired, and is now all O. K. Now you can drink to your heart's content of the best and healthiest water in the Old North State. Oh! it is so pure.

Important to Medical Students.

We understand that in accordance with a privilege conferred by the State of Kentucky and duly incorporated in the charter granted to the Louisville Medical College, the Trustees and Faculty of that Institution have created a number of Beneficiary Scholarships in behalf of those young men who seeking to obtain a medical education, are peculiarly unable to pay the fees usually necessary for this purpose. Any young man can obtain the facts, however, by addressing a letter to the Louisville Medical College, Louisville, Ky.

Want of Confidence.

Trade is depressed, and the industries of the whole country flag. Ask the cause and you are told it is due to "want of confidence." Ask the few who have not used Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye, and they say "I have confidence in it. I have been so often humbugged by such articles."

The Raleigh Sentinel says: There has been a large quantity of peach shipped from this point this season. The fruit crop has been better than for many years past. The apple crop has been especially good.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: Tilden and Vance clubs are being organized all over the good old county of Chatham. We learn of two being organized Saturday, one at Haywood and one at Osgood. Both of these clubs have members who have heretofore acted with the republican party. A prominent gentleman from that county informs us that it is determined to have a club in every township in the county and "work" is the watch word of all.

John Kimball.

NEW ORLEANS, OCTOBER 1, 1870.

Dr. Tutt.—Dear Sir.—Your Hair Dye bids fair to run every other dye out of this market.

Respectfully,

JOHN KIMBALL.

SAVANNAH, Ga; Sept 27, 1871.

Dr. Tutt.—Dear Sir.—Your Hair Dye is the best I ever used.

Yours truly,

L. O. MYERS.

Hon. James M. Schovel, a prominent New Jersey liberal Republican, has declared for Tilden and Hendricks.

Those who are troubles with Torpold Liver Comptroller of the Bowles, Pitts, Indication or any disorder of the stomach, should take Dr. Wade's Liver Corrector.

NOTICE TO THE READER.

Additional to Last Week's Campaign Song

Then, forward Tar Heels! one and all into the front line wheel!

And show that like your fathers, you are still as true as steel;

In the early days so glorious, they, first did face the storm;

Now with Zeb. Vance let's lead the dance for Tilden and Reform.

For Tilden and Reform, &c.

And foremost, (if it may be) let Orange lead the van,

Shoulder to shoulder firmly braced, in earnest every man;

With spirits rising higher, as the strife grows close, and warm,

While swells on high, the cheering cry of Tilden and Reform.

Of Tilden and Reform, &c.

And B. B.

YOU HAVE NO EXCUSE

Have you any excuse for suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint? Is there any reason why you should go on from day to day complaining with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Convulsions, palpitation of the Heart, Heart Burn, Water-brash, Gurgling and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue, and disagreeable taste in the mouth. Coming up of food after eating. Low spirits, &c. Not! It is positively your own fault if you don't get a Bottle of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER for 75 cents your own is perfect; but if you don't, get a sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you.
